

★ School Staff ★

Beth Lottridge
Computer/Library

Beth Lottridge was born in Troy, New York and moved to Alaska when she was 3 years old. After graduating from high school in Alaska, she went back to New York to attend Russell Sage College, where she received her B.A. in History. After graduating she came back to Alaska, working for the Anchorage Municipal Libraries in the Youth Services department for 11 years. She married her high school sweetheart and has two children who have and still attend St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School. Beth has been at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School for five years now, first as a parent and then starting in 2009 as the Computer/Librarian teacher.