Carrie McLaughlin
Fourth Grade Teacher

Carrie was born in San Pedro, California and grew up in the small town of Ojai. There she attended Villanova Preparatory School, an Augustinian high school. Following graduation, she moved to Tucson to attend the University of Arizona. She studied English literature, with a minor in Classics, graduating cum laude. From Tucson, she moved to Davis, California. She worked as a custom framing designer before entering Sacramento State University's graduate teaching credential program. Shortly after graduating she moved to Anchorage. Carrie is thrilled to be teaching at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School. In her free time, she likes to read, work on art projects, and travel.
